

Small Business

Foster Swift's Small Business Team provides legal services to more than 500 Michigan-based small businesses that operate in a wide range of industries. A common misconception among non-clients is that our firm is "too big" to handle small business matters. Our small business clients benefit from the collective knowledge of attorneys dedicated to crafting tailor-made solutions for each client's unique circumstances. The Small Business Team provides affordable and effective legal counsel at competitive rates, which provides a great value for small businesses.

The Small Business Team also offers an innovative Virtual Corporate Counsel service that allows clients to pay a modest monthly fee for access to the Small Business Team's advice and support without the fear of incurring legal fees for every call. While controlling costs, the Virtual Corporate Counsel service allows clients to proactively tackle legal needs and avoid problems.

Our small business clients benefit from the fact that Foster Swift is a full-service law firm, and that we are able to provide the following services: Asset protection strategies Intellectual property Business planning International expansion Corporate governance International trade Cybersecurity Internet and social media Drafting and reviewing contracts Litigation E-commerce Mergers and acquisitions Employee benefits Real estate transactions Employment law Succession planning Entity formation Tax planning Environmental Technology law Financing
